FACULTY AND STAFF

CHEYENNE DYER is a Memphis native who received her Bachelor of Fine Arts in Theatre with a concentration in dance from the University of Memphis in 2018 and an M.Ed in secondary education (English) from Grand Canyon University in 2021. She is also an alum of Bartlett High School (2014). With twenty years of experience, Mrs. Dyer's love of teaching dance began at an early age from assisting at the age of twelve at the Dance Academy of Bartlett (DAB) to teaching classes beginning at the age of sixteen. Her experience encompasses various cities such as Oklahoma City, New York City, and her hometown Memphis, Tennessee. From Tap to Ballet and Jazz to Hip Hop, she has trained with professionals from all over the world while also studying their pedagogy to increase her knowledge in the field. Mrs. Dyer has received awards such as most prestigious dancer and choreographer, most innovative tap dancer and teacher, and most inspirational dancer and scholarships as well. Her past employment includes being an assistant choreographer for the High School Musical Theatre Awards (HSM-TAs) and taught for their 2018 summer camp and various field trips. Currently, she serves on the board as Sergeant at Arms and chair of the Junior Ambassador program of the Southern Association of Dance Masters, is an English teacher here at Bartlett High School, and teaches dance at Joy McDaniel Academy of Dance and Gymnastics (JMAD). She is thrilled to have been able to choreograph for her award-winning alum school and wishes all of the tech, crew, and performers to "break a leg".

MATTHEW HAYNER was named Choral Director at Bartlett High School in 2021. Mr. Hayner most recently served as Choir Director at Germantown High School. Prior to that he served on the voice faculties of Rhodes College and Lausanne Collegiate School. Mr. Hayner received a Master of Music degree from The University of Memphis, where he studied with Mr. Evan Jones. He received his Bachelor's degrees from Bowling Green State University in Music Education and Performance. In the summer of 2009, Mr. Hayner studied at the Franz Schubert Institute in Baden, Austria. He was fortunate to learn from esteemed artists such as Elly Ameling, Robert Holl, Helmut Deutsch, Julius Drake, Wolfram Rieger, Rudolf Piernay, and Edith Wiens. As a singer, his operatic repertoire includes roles from Tartuffe, Idomeneo, The Old Maid and the Thief, L'incoronazione di Poppea, Don Quichotte auf der Hochzeit des Comacho, The Pirates of Penzance, Cosi fan tutte, Die Zauberflöte, and the North American premiere of Cavalli's La virtù de' Strali d'Amore at Eastman School of Music. He also performs frequently with the Memphis Symphony and Rhodes College Mastersingers- most recently in Brubeck's To Hope, Mozart's Requiem, CPE Bach's Magnificat, Bach's B Minor Mass, Vaughan Williams' Serenade to Music, Handel's Israel in Egypt, and Faure's Requiem. Mr. Hayner is a founding member of BealeCanto, a premier men's chamber ensemble comprised of professional musicians and educators in the Memphis area. He is also an active member of the Mississippi River Chorale, ACDA, and the National Association of Teachers of Singing (NATS).

KEVIN ROGERS is currently in his 12th year at Bartlett High School serving as the Technical Director for the Panther Playhouse and the Director of Forensics. He graduated from Harding University with a BA in Theatre and Oral Communication. He serves as the District I Director for the Tennessee High School Speech and Drama League and is on the National Speech and Debate Association District Committee for Tennessee. In 2016, he was named a WREG News Channel 3 and Tennessee Education Lottery Educator of the Week. He also received the 2017-2018 THSSDL Krider Award for Outstanding Speech and Drama Educator of the Year. In 2022, he was inducted into the THSSDL Hall of Fame. He is also a local theatre artist having been the lighting designer for productions at Germantown Community Theatre, the Harrell Theatre, and Desoto Family Theatre where he was nominated for an Allie Award for Outstanding Lighting Design for The Lion, the Witch, and the Wardrobe.

FACULTY AND STAFF

TREVOR RUNDRELL is the head Band Director at Bartlett High School. Before his appointment in 2019, Rundrell graduated from Tennessee Technological University with a B.M. in Music Education in 2016, then served as the Assistant Band director at Bartlett High School (Fall 2016-Spring 2018) and Siegel High School (Fall 2018-Spring 2019). In all of these positions, Rundrell's bands received numerous superior ratings and championships at various contests. In addition to teaching, Mr. Rundrell is an active arranger and composer, serving as the lead wind arranger for Southcoast Music & Design. With Southcoast, Rundrell writes and designs for groups all over the southeast.

CHRIS STEELE has been teaching English at Bartlett for over 20 years and loves it. She has a degree in speech and theatre and has enjoyed working with the students in the Panther Playhouse over the past few years. Previous credits include: East Lynne (Show Girl), And Then There Were None (Vera Claythorne) and To Kill a Mockingbird (Miss Maude). She loves to perform and direct. "It is so much more fun to work with such amazing talent."

KIRIE WALZ is in her sixth year of serving as director of the Panther Playhouse. She earned a BFA in Theatre Performance from the University of Memphis. After college, Mrs. Walz taught at Germantown High School for nine years. In 2019, the Panther Playhouse's production of Pippin received the award for Outstanding Overall Production at the Orpheum High School Musical Theatre Awards and Mrs. Walz received the award for Outstanding Direction by a Teacher. She has worked at several theatres in the Memphis area including Theatre Memphis and Playhouse On the Square. She has received Ostrander awards for Leading Actress in a Musical in the U of M's production of The Mystery of Edwin Drood and in Theatre Memphis' production of Annie Get Your Gun and was nominated for Best Featured Performer in a Musical for her role in Hairspray at Theatre Memphis. Other favorite productions include Elegies: A Song Cycle, Big River, Assassins, Noises Off, Parade and Aida. She is incredibly proud to direct such an amazing group of students and would like to thank her family for always supporting her.

CATIE WARD is thrilled to be joining the faculty at the Panther Playhouse this year. Mrs. Ward previously taught Media Arts at Germantown High School and Arlington High School. Previously she served as the stage manager for Tennessee Shakespeare Company. Her TSC credits include The Complete Works of William Shakespeare Abridged, It's a Wonderful Life: A Talk Radio Play, Macbeth, Southern Yuletide, the school's tour of Romeo and Juliet, The Tempest and The Glass Menagerie. She was a stage management assistant for the pre-Broadway production of The Nutty Professor directed by Jerry Lewis. A few of her theatre credits include Studio Tenn's The Glass Menagerie; Chaffin's Barn Dinner Theatre's Sherlock Holmes and It's a Wonderful Wife; 3Ps Production's John & Jen and Long Way Down, Parallel Lives, Oklahoma, Ramona Quimby, Baby, Spirit: The Authentic Story of the Bell Witch of Tennessee; and Nashville Shakespeare Festival's The Tempest. She is a graduate of Middle Tennessee State University, where she received a Bachelor of Science in Theatre.

TRENT WICKER is a Panther Playhouse alum returning to continue producing shows for the Bartlett community. While in high school, he served as the Vice President of Thespian Troupe 3618 and participated in every show at Bartlett High School as both an actor and a technician. He earned his BA in Psychology and Spanish, from the University of Memphis and now serves as an RTI teacher at BHS. "I look forward to making the Panther Playhouse Bartlett's Best!"
